Foreword

Dear Readers,

As this 1964-65 school year nears its end, we of the Rocket Staff sincerely hope that this issue of the "The Rocket" will help you to remember all the good times which have passed during this year.

Also, we hope that our yearbook will be a cherished memento for the graduates of 1965. They have a hard and uncertain road ahead of them, but maybe a glance at these pages will make their labors more bearable.

In closing we would like to express our appreciation and give recognition to the members of the staff of 1965 who gave their time to produce this book.

We hope you enjoy "The Rocket." It was ours for nearly a year. Now it belongs to you.

Sincerely yours

Jane & Sarah

We, the Class of 1965, would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Pauline Watkins, our class co-adviser. Through her patient efforts, we have established a Student Court and put on a successful prom. She has helped us to become better individuals, well prepared for the future in an ever changing and challenging world. From all of us we would like to say, "Thank you."

that you have a good time
your last year at Big R.
Lets hope it is your last year.
If it was my last year I'd be doing the same thing. The seniors are doing playing around. It sure looks like fun.
If you do make it, you know that Big R isn't going to be the same without you. Well lots of luck in the future.

Your friend,

to Annie:
Good luck in everything
